11. The Defendant, Dickey and Associates, Inc. is a corporation registered to do business and doing business in the State of Alabama.
12. The Defendant, Covington County, Alabama, is a county within the State of Alabama.

FACTS

13. This is an action brought pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 1983, et seq. and state law to recover civil damages arising from violations of the Fourteenth amendment to the U.S. Constitution and state law which resulted in the death of Dennis Courtney on or about April 6, 2005.
14. On or about April 6, 2005, decedent, Dennis Courtney was found dead at his secondary residence in Oakwood, Texas. His death was ruled a homicide.
15. Escaped inmates, Oscar Roy Doster and James Darren Harnage were implicated in the death of Dennis Courtney.
16. Prior to April 6, 2005, Oscar Roy Doster and James Darren Harnage were inmates in the Covington County, Alabama jail, which was administered and overseen by Defendant, Sheriff Anthony Clark. Oscar Roy Doster along with inmate James Darren Harnage was allowed to escape from the jail on or about March 31, 2005, in a similar manner and method as their first escape which occurred on or about November 3, 2002.
17. Defendants, Oscar Roy Doster, James Darren Harnage and others were allowed to escape from the Covington County, Alabama jail by the Sheriff and his employees.

18. Prior to the escape of Oscar Roy Doster, James Darren Harnage and others, numerous other instances of escapes had occurred and Sheriff Anthony Clark was fully aware of these instances.
19. In the incident that made the basis of this complaint, Oscar Roy Doster, James Darren Harnage and others were allowed to escape by entering the ventilation system of the jail building without being detected in a similar manner and method as the first time Doster escaped. Oscar Roy Doster, James Darren Harnage and others exited the jail facility through the ventilation system and then scaled the surrounding fence and successfully escaped without being detected in any way.
20. Sheriff Anthony Clark and his staff failed to keep a proper lookout and/or properly monitor and supervise the activities of Oscar Roy Doster and other inmates.
21. In addition, when the first escape occurred in 2002, Sheriff Anthony Clark and his staff willfully and intentionally suppressed the information of the escape. Sheriff Anthony Clark neglected to notify the public of the inherent danger lurking. Sheriff Anthony Clark deliberately waited until after the regularly scheduled election in November 2002 wherein he was a candidate seeking reelection to his position as Sheriff. Sheriff Anthony Clark hid this information from the public in an effort to avoid negative publicity as he sought the bid for reelection.
22. Defendants, Hollis and Span, Inc., Seymour and Lisenby Architects, Darden Engineers, Dickey and Associates, Inc., and Covington County were each separately and severally responsible for the design, engineering and/or construction of the Covington County Jail facility.

23. Defendants, Black Creek Integrated Systems, Inc, and Covington County, were responsible for the installation and proper operation of the surveillance system in the Covington County Jail facility.

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

Plaintiff alleges against the Defendants, Sheriff Anthony Clark; Jerry Wayne Edgar; Walter Inabinett; Black Creek Systems, Inc.; Seymour & Lisenby, Inc.; Darden Engineers, Inc.; Dickey & Associates, Inc.; and Covington County as follows:

24. The Plaintiff adopts and incorporates by reference the relevant portions of paragraphs 1 through 23 above.
25. The Plaintiff avers that the occurrence, namely the second successful escape by Defendants, Oscar Doster and James Darren Harnage was inherently dangerous and unsafe for the public at the time of said occurrence and up until the time that they were captured and returned to custody. The Plaintiff further avers that the Defendants, Sheriff Anthony Clark; Jerry Wayne Edgar; Walter Inabinett, Black Creek Integrated Systems, Inc.; Seymour & Lisenby, Inc.; Darden Engineers, Inc.; Dickey & Associates, Inc.; and Covington County, knew or should have known of the faulty design and construction of the Covington County jail facility and inadequate surveillance system which enabled inmates to escape and owed a duty to Dennis Courtney and the general public to warn them of and protect them from the inherent danger created by and associated with escaped inmates.

26. The Plaintiff avers that that the negligent or wrongful conduct of the Defendants, Sheriff Anthony Clark; Jerry Wayne Edgar; Walter Inabinett, Black Creek Integrated Systems, Inc.; Seymour & Lisenby, Inc.; Darden Engineers, Inc.; Dickey & Associates, Inc.; and Covington County, was the actual, proximate and contributory cause of the death of Dennis Courtney.

WHEREFORE, the premises considered, the plaintiff demands judgment against the Defendants, Sheriff Anthony Clark; Jerry Wayne Edgar; Walter Inabinett, Black Creek Integrated Systems, Inc.; Seymour & Lisenby, Inc.; Darden Engineers, Inc.; Dickey & Associates, Inc.; and Covington County, separately and severally, in an amount which will adequately reflect the purpose of the Alabama Wrongful Death Act and 42 U.S.C. § 1983 consistent with the culpability of the Defendant's conduct as may be determined by the jury, plus interest and costs, in excess of the minimal jurisdictional limits of this Court.

SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

Plaintiff alleges against the Defendants, Sheriff Anthony Clark; Jerry Wayne Edgar; Walter Inabinett, Black Creek Integrated Systems, Inc.; Seymour & Lisenby, Inc.; Darden Engineers, Inc.; Dickey & Associates, Inc.; and Covington County, as follows:

33. The Plaintiff adopts and realleges the relevant portions of paragraphs 1 through 23 above.
34. The Defendants, Sheriff Anthony Clark; Jerry Wayne Edgar; Walter Inabinett, Black Creek Integrated Systems, Inc.; Seymour & Lisenby, Inc.; Darden Engineers, Inc.; Dickey & Associates, Inc.; and Covington County, negligently failed to inspect the ventilation system involved in the occurrence made the subject matter of this complaint.
35. The Plaintiff avers that the negligent or wrongful conduct of the Defendants, Sheriff Anthony Clark; Jerry Wayne Edgar; Walter Inabinett, Black Creek Integrated Systems, Inc.; Seymour & Lisenby, Inc.; Darden Engineers, Inc.; Dickey & Associates, Inc.; and Covington County, was the actual, proximate and contributory cause of the death of Dennis Courtney.

WHEREFORE, the premises considered, the plaintiff demands judgment against the Defendants, Sheriff Anthony Clark; Jerry Wayne Edgar; Walter

Inabinett, Black Creek Integrated Systems, Inc.; Seymour & Lisenby, Inc.; Darden Engineers, Inc.; Dickey & Associates, Inc.; and Covington County, separately and severally, in an amount which will adequately reflect the purpose of the Alabama Wrongful Death Act and 42 U.S.C. § 1983 consistent with the culpability of the Defendant's conduct as may be determined by the jury, plus interest and costs, in excess of the minimal jurisdictional limits of this Court.

FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Plaintiff alleges against the Defendants, Sheriff Anthony Clark; Jerry Wayne Edgar; Walter Inabinett, Black Creek Integrated Systems, Inc.; Seymour & Lisenby, Inc.; Darden Engineers, Inc.; Dickey & Associates, Inc.; and Covington County, as follows:

36. The Plaintiff adopts and incorporates by reference the relevant portions of paragraphs 1 through 23 above.
37. The Defendants, Sheriff Anthony Clark; Jerry Wayne Edgar; Walter Inabinett, Black Creek Integrated Systems, Inc.; Seymour & Lisenby, Inc.; Darden Engineers, Inc.; Dickey & Associates, Inc.; and Covington County, negligently hired the person, firm or corporation responsible for the surveillance of the entire Covington County jail facility.
38. The Plaintiff avers that the negligent or wrongful conduct of the Defendants, Sheriff Anthony Clark; Jerry Wayne Edgar; Walter Inabinett, Black Creek Integrated Systems, Inc.; Seymour & Lisenby, Inc.; Darden Engineers, Inc.; Dickey & Associates, Inc.; and Covington County, was the actual, proximate and contributory cause of the death of Dennis Courtney.

WHEREFORE, the premises considered, the plaintiff demands judgment against the Defendants, Sheriff Anthony Clark; Jerry Wayne Edgar; Walter Inabinett, Black Creek Integrated Systems, Inc.; Seymour & Lisenby, Inc.; Darden Engineers, Inc.; Dickey & Associates, Inc.; and Covington County, separately and severally, in an amount which will adequately reflect the purpose of the Alabama Wrongful Death Act and 42 U.S.C. § 1983 consistent with the culpability of the Defendant's conduct as may be determined by the jury, plus interest and costs, in excess of the minimal jurisdictional limits of this Court.
